REGISTER

This inaugural grand rounds session will highlight how the Global Roadmap for Health Care Decarbonization can help the health care sector meet the goals of the Race to Zero – to halve emissions by 2030 and achieve net-zero emissions by 2050 – and why clinician leadership is critical in meeting this goal.

Speakers

Gary Cohen

*President & Co-Founder at Health Care
Without Harm & Practice Greenhealth*

Beth Schenk, PhD, RN, FAANE
Executive Director of Environmental Stewardship at Providence

Dr. Rengaraj Venkatesh, DO, DNB
*Chief Medical Officer at Aravind Eye
Hospital, Pondicherry*

In this session participants will:

- Be inspired by a call to action to the health care sector about the imperative to reduce emissions to protect public and planetary health
- Learn about the high-impact actions necessary to reduce health care emissions
- Hear from two clinicians on why their institutions joined the Race to Zero
